Thai Bridgestone participates in Don't Drive Drunk Foundation's "Songkran Zero Dead" campaign. Mr. Arkhom Termpittayapaisith, Minister of Transportation, presided over the opening ceremony of Songkran Zero Dead campaign organized by Don't Drive Drunk Foundation together with public and private sector partners to reduce accidents. Mr. Shin Nakamichi, Corporate Strategy Planning Manager of Thai Bridgestone Company Limited, the manufacturer and distributor of leading tires, represented the company in attending the ceremony and supported 3,000 boxes of refreshments to be given to people who are traveling home during the long holidays. At the event, which was held at Mochit Bus Terminal, people were educated on the dangers of drunk driving and there were also many interesting activities.
